

Cornerstone Update January 20, 2012

Wild Game Dinner

I'm looking forward to spending the evening with many of you at the Wild Game Dinner. It's sold out so come early to get seats if you're part of a group. Mr. Grizzly (PC named him "Cuddles") is coming off my office wall for the trophy display area. He doesn't get out very much. Whether you go to the dinner or not, please pray because there will be a lot of folks there who need the Lord.

Ladies Get-Away

Registration is open for ONLY 2 more weekends, Jan. 22nd and Jan. 29th. The Get-Away is Feb. 10-12, 2012 at the Oregon Garden Resort. We also are in need of a lady who can run the sound board at the Get-Away. Contact Sharon Hynes.

Slovenia Team

We are accepting applications for Slovenia 2012. You can download them the application and reference form on our website or pick them up at the office. Tom and Kitty want to solidify the team soon so do it right away.

See you Sunday when we'll try to get started one more time in our study of the Judges.

Don't forget to pray.
