Feb 6, 2012

Happy Monday!

Mrs. Moffat read the true stories in Luke chapter 7 and we talked about the differences in peoples' faith and their reactions to Jesus' miracles. She challenged us all to think about where we fall on the "belief-o-meter". Do we have faith like the Centurion, who asked Jesus to just say the word and he trusted his servant would be healed, or do we doubt Jesus' work like the Pharisees did, in our own lives? May we be encouraged by those who displayed great faith!

Also, if you didn't pick up the packet of memory verses for the rest of the year, it is attached to this email. If you would like a set of memory verse cards made, I would be happy to make them.

REMEMBER: NO Sunday School this coming Sunday 2/12/12...due to the Ladies Getaway.

Thirteen verses for the Winter and Spring 2012

The dates in front of these verses tell you the Sunday the verse was given. Feel free to stick with this schedule, skip around, or follow your own pace. The final verse of the year (listed at the top and bottom of this reference sheet) is one I would love to see us all working on throughout the winter and spring so that we ALL know it really well by May.
